Adam,

In most circumstances, we would agree to stipulate to stay the case pending the outcome of the motion to dismiss, but your client continues to defame my client with his posts on the internet, so we will not stipulate to stay this case. Additionally, I do not believe a meet and confer is necessary before filing the Motion to Stay as our local rules only require it before filing motions to compel, protective orders, and emergency motions. When is your availability for a rule 26(f) conference this week?

Sincerely,

George E. Robinson, Esq.

Counsel,

We never received a response from you to our email from last week asking whether you agree to stay proceedings pending the resolution of the motions to dismiss or transfer, or your availability for a meet and confer for today or June 12.

Please let us know as soon as possible if you agree to stay proceedings, or your availability for a meet and confer.

Sincerely,

Adam

Notice of Corrected Image/Document

Dear Counsel:

Because motions to dismiss have been filed in the above captioned case, please let us know if you agree to stay discovery pending resolution of the motions to dismiss or transfer. While we hope to avoid motion practice and avoid wasting the parties' and judicial resources on this issue, if you do not agree, please let us know your availability on June 11 or June 12 for a meet and confer.

Please let us know if you have any questions.

Sincerely,

Adam Wolek
